

STACIESTARK

Stacie Stark is a Bible teacher, small group leader, and women's event planner. She served for 7 years as the Associate Teaching Director at Community Bible Study in Lake Forest and continues to serve on the leadership team as a discussion facilitator. Stacie has also led a women's small group through her local, non-denominational church for over 10 years. Stacie connects most deeply with God through the study of Scripture and is honored to have been entrusted by Him to teach what she learns to other women.

Stacie believes God is always communicating with us and that it's up to us to put ourselves in the best position to hear Him. GODSENDS was designed to help us recognize what God is trying to tell us through the other people He places in our lives – specific people in specific places at specific times for a specific purpose. How much God must love us to be so intentional about connecting us to others when we need them and when they need us!

Stacie grew up in Northbrook, but now lives in Lake Forest with her husband Steve and 3 tween/teenaged daughters – Rylan, Aubrey, and Teagan. By the end of 2023, she will have moved her oldest to South Carolina to attend Clemson University, remodeled her kitchen, and watched over 100 of her girls' softball games. When she is not at Bible study or a softball game, she works as a Strategic HR Consultant and Executive Communications Coach.
